

Organized by NPO Tsukiji Foreign Settlement Historical Society
Sponsored by Chuo City Marugoto Museum

Town tour guided in English

Let's walk around
“Tsukiji Foreign Settlement in Meiji era”

Here in Tsukiji there was a foreign settlement from January 1st, 1869 to July 17th, 1899. This tour is to introduce the history and the legacy of the Tsukiji Foreign Settlement in which many of foreign legations, consulates, churches, mission schools, trading houses, and hospitals were established.

Let's learn more about our town.

Date and Time : November 4th (Mon), 2019, 13:00～15:00

Meeting Place : In front of the main entrance of St.Luke's International University at 10-1 Akashi-cho, Chuo-ku

Fees : Free

Reservations : Call us at 090-1509-9912

or e-mail us to r_f_oshima@yahoo.co.jp

Guided by : Isaku Murakami

Places to visit : ①St. Luke's Tuesler Memorial House, ②Former site of US legation, ③Former site of Union Church, ④Tsukiji Catholic Church, ⑤Birth place of Keio University, Rikkyo Gakuin (St.Paul's), and etc.

Access to St.Luke's International University

By subway

Get off at Tsukiji Station on the Tokyo Metro Hibiya line. Take Exit 3 or 4 and walk straight along Seiruka Dori St. go straight the Denny's Restaurant's next to the road. (It is a 3-minute walk.)

Get off at Shintomicho Station on the Tokyo Metro Yurakucho line. Take Exit 6, turn right at the first crossing, and walk straight on. (It is a 5-minute walk.)

By bus

Toei (Metropolitan) bus Nishiki 11 (Departing from Kinshicho Ekimae to Tsukiji Ekimae via Shin Ohashi and Kiba-cho) Get off at the “Tsukiji Eki Mae” bus stop, the final stop. It is a 3-minute walk from there. (See above, from Tsukiji Station)

Toei (Metropolitan) bus Higashi 15 (Departing from Fukagawa Shakomae to Tokyo Eki Yaesu-guchi via Toyosu Eki and Akashi-cho) Get off at the Sei Ruka Byoin-mae bus stop. It is a 1-minute walk from there.